Fun Facts!

Do your own research and write your findings here!

Use your book or other sources to research France's history.
Write about 6 events and put them in order on the timeline below.

The form consists of a central vertical line with an upward-pointing arrowhead at the top and a downward-pointing arrowhead at the bottom. Six empty, rounded rectangular boxes are arranged in two columns of three, flanking the central line. These boxes are intended for students to write and order six historical events related to France.
